

“First Responder” and Fire Fighting by City Employees on State Highways – State reimbursement should cover the actual cost covered by city departments in providing service to the State.