

Homestead classification		Administering the homestead classification is costly to the city. The financial difference between homestead and non-homestead properties has been reduced much in recent years. A review of this classification should be done to consider whether it should be eliminated, extended to all residential property, administered at the state level, or verified every other year rather than annually. The City does not oppose the intent of the mandate, but rather objects if it is unfunded or underfunded.
--------------------------	--	---