

The State mandate to counties regarding required response to child protection reports including specific timeframes

M.S.
§656.556
subd. 10

The mandates are too specific and do not take into consideration the uniqueness of individual cases and how families and children are to be approached and investigated. Each family situation is different and current statutory timelines are too inflexible.