

The State requires that the County pay legal fees for a petitioner in guardianship/conservatorship cases if the protected person in question is indigent

M.S.
§524.5-502

The law does not address the financial status of the petitioner—only the protected person in question. Many of the petitions have the financial means to pay their own legal bills. This statute could be amended to recognize this fact.