

The “law is silent” as it pertains to overpayments for the health care programs due to agency error; as a result repayments are only voluntary

M.S.
§256.90
subd. 4

Two different divisions within DHS interpret this statute differently. Recoveries of overpayments in these cases should not be voluntary, but rather mandatory like any other MAXIS overpayment.