State Auditor Otto Releases Criminal Forfeitures Report

Contact: Jim Levi, Office of the State Auditor, (651) 297-3683, Jim.Levi@osa.state.mn.us

ST. PAUL (6/12/2018) – State Auditor Rebecca Otto today released the Criminal Forfeitures Report, which provides information on the amount of cash and property seized subject to forfeiture by Minnesota law enforcement agencies where the final disposition was completed in 2017.

Under Minnesota law, property associated with designated criminal offenses may be forfeited. The report lists and summarizes forfeiture incidents after final disposition to provide transparency to the public and to inform lawmakers on the nature and frequency of property seized subject to forfeiture.

Highlights from the report include:

- In 2017, 320 Minnesota law enforcement agencies reported a total of 7,852 completed forfeitures. This compares to 7,048 completed forfeitures in 2016.
- Of the 7,852 completed forfeitures reported, 4,826 involved seized cash, property that was sold, or an agreement that required monetary compensation to the agency. The total value of net proceeds from these forfeitures was $7,040,458.
- The agencies with 100 or more completed forfeitures in 2017 were: the Minnesota State Patrol (1,308); Department of Natural Resources, Enforcement Division (DNR) (467); Dakota County Drug Task Force (180); Rochester Police Department (156); Southwest Hennepin Drug Task Force (156); Southeast Minnesota Narcotics and Gang Task Force (148); Saint Paul Police Department (142); Hennepin County Violent Offenders Task Force (132); and Bloomington Police Department (115).
- In 2017, vehicles accounted for 61 percent of property seized, followed by cash at 24 percent, firearms at 13 percent, and other property at 2 percent.

The Office of the State Auditor is a constitutional office that is charged with overseeing more than $20 billion spent annually by local governments in Minnesota. The Office of the State Auditor does this by performing audits of local government financial statements, and by reviewing documents, data, reports, and complaints reported to the Office. The financial information collected from local governments is analyzed and is the basis of statutory reports issued by the Office of the State Auditor.

Rebecca Otto is Minnesota's 18th State Auditor. A high-resolution official photo is available for download at http://www.auditor.state.mn.us/images/otto_hires.jpg. To learn more about State Auditor Otto, see <http://www.auditor.state.mn.us/default.aspx?page=bio>.
